AGREEMENT AND RELEASE FOR ALL POTENTIAL VOLUNTEERS

I am applying for volunteer service for ASAPROSAR International Volunteer Program whose primary purpose is to encourage cross-cultural understanding and cooperation by matching individuals and intergenerational groups with diverse talents and educational levels with worthwhile "service-learning" experiences in western El Salvador.

*Service-learning is a volunteer experience that connects meaningful community service with increased knowledge, personal growth and civic responsibility. Service-learning from a global perspective helps volunteers recognize that they are connected to and affected by the larger world. Through volunteering they gain knowledge about another culture, experience personal growth and learn that they can make the world a better place.

I understand that any offer of volunteering with ASAPROSAR is subject to satisfactory references and binding in honour only. This to certify that I have no objections to ASAPROSAR using any photographic or video images of me taken while I attend an ASAPROSAR activity / event. The images will only be used to promote the work of ASAPROSAR to partners, funders and any other charitable organization.

I certify that all statements made in my application and descriptions of work history are true, accurate and complete. I hereby expressly authorize ASAPROSAR, its officers, agents and employees, to investigate in any manner they deem appropriate, at their sole discretion, my medical, health, educational, employment, community service or professional background, public or private records including but not limited to law enforcement and court records and personal references. I further consent to and authorize ASAPROSAR to communicate with any and all of my previous or current employers relating to my work record and experience.

In consideration of being evaluated for volunteer service with ASAPROSAR, I hereby release and forever discharge the Volunteers Program and the other Programs, its officers, agents and employees from any and all claims, demands, damages or liability relating to or arising out of the requesting of, or furnishing of, any information relating to my medical, health, educational, employment, community service or professional background, public or private records including but not limited to law enforcement and court records and personal references as described above.
